Chair, Janet Nelson, opened the Public Hearing on the Land Plan. In attendance were Bill Browne, Denise Medemar, and Marv Voss in the audience.

Bill Browne informed the Commission that some grammar and some formatting needed to be done on the plan before it was put on the web page, but the Board was comfortable with the Plan. Marv Voss said that the County thought it was small, concise, and easy to read. With no other comments from the public, the hearing was closed. Harry motioned to accept the Plan with the corrections of grammar and formatting as long as the meaning of the Plan was not changed. Tony Garofalo seconded. Discussion: Harry stated that any changes must not affect the meaning of the Plan. Vote taken, Motion passed. The Planning Commission would like to thank the temporary Administrative Assistant for her help. She was very involved with the process of preparing our Master Plan that will be published on our Web Site. Proper formatting and grammar were a very important part of the announcement to the general public.
